

shall so prefer. I have traveled about the country lecturing enough to know how perfectly justifiably one loathes the intruding stranger who breaks in upon his needed repose
this prized seclusion.

Turk Yancey

Sam'l L. Clemens
("Mark Wain")

m-2
210
14

1520-DOP-HO 338-
1870

25

Saturday Am

I have called to pay
my respects, Mr. Booth, & apologize for my ~~pittoe~~ piece of supernatural stupidity of last night (for I am sore about it yet, & righteously ashamed); but do not hesitate to excuse yourself if you ~~will~~